

Sample 1 Profile

About Myself

Hi, my name is Delyth Ng'eno. My friends call me "Del or Delo". I am from Kericho but I live in Nairobi. I work as a pharmacist.

Educational Background

I studied Bachelor of Science in Pharmacy at the University of San Carlos. I attended Sacho High School for my Certificate of Secondary Education and Kericho Primary School for my Certificate of Primary Education. I have also done computer packages from Kenya Highlands Evangelical University. I have participated in trainings like peer and HIV Counseling.

Professional Background

I am currently working as a Pharmacist in Kabarnet District Hospital under the Ministry of Health. I am tasked with the roles of verifying prescriptions from the Clinical and Medical Officers, Calling them to confirm the prescriptions if any errors, Overseeing the dispensing of drugs, dispensing the drugs with detailed instructions to the patients, patient counseling, Stock taking, ordering of drugs from suppliers, supplying drugs to the satellite pharmacies and keeping drug records. I also have the important role of providing drug information to prescribers & monitoring adverse drug reaction.

Vision

I have a vision of working in a well-established firm with a mission to change the current health status of our country. To be able to have a country with more than enough health resources available for its citizens.

Fun Activities

I cook on line recipes when I am hungry and bored. I love swimming when it is hot and mostly I watch series and movies when I am indoors. I love to read inspirational books and quotes. I am currently reading a book on preparing for marriage as I am about to get married.